

Mountain Kids!

Job Opening for Camp Counselor in Santa Fe, NM

Santa Fe Mountain Kids is an outdoor education and adventure program for children ages 5-16 years. We are seeking experienced outdoor educators who are mature, responsible, outgoing and fun. Applicants must love working with children and care about their development. Applicants are flexible team players, have excellent judgment, problem-solving skills, are outdoor enthusiasts and love sharing this joy with children.

Camp activities include hiking, games, team building activities, learning about nature, imaginative play in nature, backpacking, mountain biking, wilderness skills, art, photography, and good old fashioned fun!

Location: Santa Fe, New Mexico - Camp meets at Patrick Smith Park prior to daily adventures in mountains

Hours: Monday-Friday, 7:30/8 am – 4/5:30 pm, plus weekly meetings (~2 hours).

Dates of Employment: June 3rd-August 23rd, 2019, Staff Training - May 23-25, 2019

The ideal candidate meets the following criteria:

- 21 years of age or older
- Experienced outdoors person with knowledge of mountain hazards and preparedness
- College graduate or student (coursework in recreation, natural science and/or education an asset)
- Experience with and love of working with children, high energy level, excellent group management skills
- Strong communication and organization skills
- Team player – able to plan and implement camp curriculum with other leaders
- Excellent problem solving skills, flexibility, and willingness to take initiative
- Good driving record, able to drive a 15-passenger van. Training provided.
- Excellent judgment and concern for safety of children

Qualifications to meet upon acceptance:

- First Aid and CPR Certified (minimum requirement), Wilderness First Aid or WFR (an asset)
- Counselors must have their own transportation to and from camp
- A good driving record, and a background check are required
- Successful applicants will participate in a 3 day Staff Training

Compensation: From $12-$18/hour, commensurate with experience and qualifications

To Apply: Please send cover letter, resume, and three references to Katie Macaulay: Katie@sfmountainkids.com

We look forward to your application! ☺